GO GET 'EM HUTCH- Ep. 13 - "Under the Ice"

JUN 26 1922

The chapter opens with Hutch successful in reaching the wrecked freight train and overtaking Margie Dailey and her foster-father, Sam Dailey. The latter, under the influence of Margie, turns over the shipping plans to Hutch. A short time later, Dariel Bainbridge appears on the scene, much to Hutch's pleasure. Dailey goes on to his lumber camp, and Hutch drives Dariel and Margie toward a place where refreshments can be secured. As the car seems to have engine trouble, Hutch steps out to examine it, leaving the bag on the mudguard beside him.

Meanwhile, Hilton Lennox has followed in his car, and seeing Hutch making repairs, and the bag within his reach, he makes a bold dash and secures it. There is no way for Hutch to follow until a small boy skating, who had witnessed the scene, offers his skates to Hutch, telling him of a short cut to a bridge where the car will have to pass under. Hutch gladly accepts the assistance and speeds over the ice to the bridge. Getting there in advance of Lennox, he waits--then leaps into the car, secures the bag and skates back. Meanwhile, Lennox phones his henchmen at the Narrows, and they lie in wait for Hutch. As the skater approaches, a trap is laid, but Hutch eludes them and leaps into a car, making his escape from them but throwing himself into a new peril.
